Proclamation

of the Livingston City Commission

Participation in and Enjoyment of the "100 Bucking Years" Event. Recognizing that the 2024 Edition of Inaugural Livingston Roundup Rodeo will be 100th Anniversary of the 1924 Anniversary Rodeo and of Encourages

$2,500.00 ($43,300 in 2024) dollars; and on Labor Day Weekend in 1924 with prize money of establishing the 1924 inaugural three-day event held local community members were instrumental in Yoke Ranch (now Mountain Sky Ranch) and other WHEREAS, Charley Murphy, owner of the then Ox

出力:"上海更多的,其里共享不必要有是是其他 Advert TANCE: MO STREET PARADS . SATURDAY, AUG. 30 and MONDAY, SEPT. g. 30-31, Sept. $3,500 IN PRIZES COUNTY FAIR CHOUNDS nd Jamboree 21,00

Photo Date 8/27/1927)

dollar from the rodeo office located across the street from the Park Hotel; and WHEREAS, in 1924, a ticket to the Livingston Roundup Rodeo could be purchased for one dances and other entertainment during which events "Livingston Streets were filled with shirts." (quotes from the 1924 Livingston Enterprise); and exemplars of the early western days swaggering about in bow-legged chaps and eye-filling WHEREAS, the "Rodeo and Jamboree" included three days of rodeo, two days of parades,

(quotes from the 1924 Livingston Enterprise, quoting the Bozeman Chronicle); and which events competed with other activities designed not to "imitate the Bozeman roundup." WHEREAS, the Rodeo was held on the "island," followed by a dance at the "island pavilion" payout of $250,000, and attended by approximately will have morphed from in 1924 to an estimated rapidly approaching at which time the total payout Livingston Roundup Rodeo will occur which is a date July 2, 3 and 4, 2024, the century mark for the 15,000 spectators; WHEREAS, 100 years seems like forever, but on Buckin Years" unforgettable event. help plan, develop, participate in and attend the "100 that with this advanced notice all are encouraged to 2024 there will be a celebration of "100 Buckin NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that Years" event of the Livingston Roundup Rodeo and of the City of Livingston Recognizing that the 2024 THEREFORE, I MELISSA NOOTZ, Chairperson Edition of the Livingston Roundup Rodeo will be the Encourages Participation in and Enjoyment of the 100th Anniversary of the 1924 Inaugural Rodeo and

VINCSTONS BORES GETS LYING START THIS

"100 Bucking Years" Event.

Signed this 16 day of 2022

Nootz, Chair n City Commission

aith/Kinnick,

Recording Secretary