INTERLOCAL AGREEMENT

AGREEMENT made this 20th day of May, 2002, by and between the City of Livingston, Montana, a municipal corporation and political subdivision of the State of Montana, with its principal offices located at 414 East Callender Street, Livingston, Montana, 59047, hereinafter referred to as City and Park County, Montana, a political subdivision of the State of Montana, with its principal offices located at 414 East Callender Street, Livingston, Montana, 59047, hereinafter referred to as County.

Recitals.

WHEREAS, the County and City entered into an Interlocal Agreement on June 6, 1994 to establish the 9 1 1 Advisory Committee to establish the 9 1 1 Public Safety Telephone System; and

WHEREAS, the County and City formed a Communications Advisory Committee to study the creation of the public safety communication office; and

WHEREAS, the 9 1 1 Advisory Committee and the Communications Advisory Committee contain overlapping memberships; and

WHEREAS, the 9 1 1 Advisory Committee is, for all intents and purposes defunct and many of its areas of concern could be addressed by the Communications Advisory Committee; and

WHEREAS, the parties hereto believe that in the interest of efficiency, that the function of the 9 1 1 Advisory Committee should be merged into the Communications Advisory Committee; and

WHEREAS, 7-11-101 Montana Code Annotated (MCA) et seq. Authorized local governmental units to make the most efficient use of their powers by enabling them to cooperate with other local governmental units on a basis of mutual advantage to provide services and facilities in a manner that will accord best with geographic, economic, population and other factors influencing the needs and development of local communities.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing recitals and the terms and conditions contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. Duration of Agreement. This agreement shall commence on June 1, 2002 and shall expire on June 1, 2007

2. Purpose. The purpose of this agreement is to provide an advisory board to local government which will to continue to implement and follow the 9 1 1 Public Safety Answering and to that extent the 9 1 1 Advisory Committee is combined into the Communication Advisory Committee (CAC).

The CAC will work towards establishing a public safety communications office and the creation of an interlocal agreement for a multijurisdictional service district for financing and implementing a public safety communication office (7-11-1101 MCA).

The CAC will assist local government by recommending priorities and making recommendations on funding, programs, projects and goals to accomplish the aforementioned purposes.

3. Membership. The membership of the CAC shall be made up of the following members:

Voting Members:

- City Chief of Police
- Park County Sheriff
- City Fire Chief
- Rural Fire Chief
- County Commissioner to be chosen by the County Commissioners
- City Commissioner to be chosen by the City Commissioners
- City Resident appointed by City Commission
- County Resident appointed by County Commission

Advisers: (non-voting):

- City Manager
- Police Head Dispatcher
- Disaster and Emergency Services coordinator
- Hospital representative
- Rural addressing
- City Attorney
- County Attorney
- Red Cross coordinator
- Yellowstone National Park Service representative

4. Financial Arrangements. The costs shall be shared equally by the City and County.

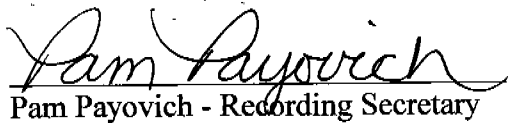

5. Command and Control. The dispatch center shall be continued to be operated by the City and manned by City employees until such time as the public safety communication office is established and funded through a multijurisdictional service district for dispatch services as provided under 7-11-1101 et seq. MCA.

6. Organization and meetings. The CAC shall meet in a group on or before the 27th day of June, 2002, to elect a chairman, adopt bylaws and establish a monthly meeting date.
