Question/Comment

Location: Civic Center. Most appropriate, most accessible. Let us not forget that this facility is not just to serve our kids, but also a quality of life issue for the aging adults in this county.

Winters are long, hard, and very isolating for us all, and especially for older residents. Livingston has few amenities and not all residents of the county are avidly outdoorsy for various reasons.

This is a benefit to the community, generously gifted, and with consideration of the community at large. We are growing and will continue to grow. If you raised kids here and want them to return home with their kids, it's amenities like this that sweeten the pot. This is the next chapter in Livingston continuing to be a great place to live. I, for one, appreciate the effort, the transparency and the discussion.
